Natalie Brooks

Senior Product Manager

Toronto, ON | natalie.brooks@example.com | (647) 555-0151

Summary

Senior Product Manager with 11 years of experience leading B2B SaaS and fintech products from discovery through scale, managing cross-functional teams of up to 25.

Skills

Product Strategy • Roadmapping • User Research • A/B Testing • SQL • Amplitude • Jira • OKRs • Pricing & Packaging • Stakeholder Management • B2B SaaS • Agile / Scrum • Go-to-Market • API Products

Experience

Senior Product Manager, Queen West Payments (fictional)

Toronto, ON | 2021 – Present

- Own merchant onboarding; grew activation 34%
- Lead 3 squads (25 people)
- Launched usage-based pricing
- Partnered with cross-functional leaders to set quarterly priorities and track outcomes
- Documented processes and trained new team members on standards and tools
- Presented progress and risks to senior leadership in monthly reviews
- Mentored junior colleagues and ran recurring knowledge-sharing sessions
- Identified process gaps and delivered improvements that reduced rework
- Built dashboards to track KPIs and shared weekly updates with stakeholders

Product Manager, Liberty Village Analytics (fictional)

Toronto, ON | 2018 – 2021

- Shipped self-serve reporting used by 4,000 accounts
- Ran 40+ A/B tests
- Partnered with cross-functional leaders to set quarterly priorities and track outcomes
- Documented processes and trained new team members on standards and tools
- Presented progress and risks to senior leadership in monthly reviews
- Mentored junior colleagues and ran recurring knowledge-sharing sessions
- Identified process gaps and delivered improvements that reduced rework
- Built dashboards to track KPIs and shared weekly updates with stakeholders

Associate Product Manager, Yonge Street Software (fictional)

Toronto, ON | 2016 – 2018

- Owned mobile release train
- Partnered with cross-functional leaders to set quarterly priorities and track outcomes

- Documented processes and trained new team members on standards and tools
- Presented progress and risks to senior leadership in monthly reviews
- Mentored junior colleagues and ran recurring knowledge-sharing sessions
- Identified process gaps and delivered improvements that reduced rework
- Built dashboards to track KPIs and shared weekly updates with stakeholders

Business Analyst, Bloor Consulting Group (fictional)
Toronto, ON | 2015 – 2016

- Gathered requirements for banking clients
- Partnered with cross-functional leaders to set quarterly priorities and track outcomes
- Documented processes and trained new team members on standards and tools
- Presented progress and risks to senior leadership in monthly reviews
- Mentored junior colleagues and ran recurring knowledge-sharing sessions
- Identified process gaps and delivered improvements that reduced rework
- Built dashboards to track KPIs and shared weekly updates with stakeholders

Education

MBA, Ivey Business School, Western University, 2015
Bachelor of Engineering, Systems Design, University of Waterloo, 2013

Certifications

- Certified Scrum Product Owner (CSPO)

Selected Accomplishments

- Senior Product Manager: partnered with cross-functional leaders to set quarterly priorities and track outcomes, with measurable results reported to leadership.
- Product Manager: documented processes and trained new team members on standards and tools, with measurable results reported to leadership.
- Associate Product Manager: presented progress and risks to senior leadership in monthly reviews, with measurable results reported to leadership.
- Business Analyst: mentored junior colleagues and ran recurring knowledge-sharing sessions, with measurable results reported to leadership.
- Senior Product Manager: identified process gaps and delivered improvements that reduced rework, with measurable results reported to leadership.
- Product Manager: built dashboards to track kpis and shared weekly updates with stakeholders, with measurable results reported to leadership.
- Associate Product Manager: partnered with cross-functional leaders to set quarterly priorities and track outcomes, with measurable results reported to leadership.
- Business Analyst: documented processes and trained new team members on standards and tools, with measurable results reported to leadership.

- Senior Product Manager: presented progress and risks to senior leadership in monthly reviews, with measurable results reported to leadership.
- Product Manager: mentored junior colleagues and ran recurring knowledge-sharing sessions, with measurable results reported to leadership.
- Associate Product Manager: identified process gaps and delivered improvements that reduced rework, with measurable results reported to leadership.
- Business Analyst: built dashboards to track kpis and shared weekly updates with stakeholders, with measurable results reported to leadership.

Professional Development & Community

- Conference talk / workshop 1: shared lessons on Product Strategy with peers in the Product management community.
- Conference talk / workshop 2: shared lessons on Roadmapping with peers in the Product management community.
- Conference talk / workshop 3: shared lessons on User Research with peers in the Product management community.
- Conference talk / workshop 4: shared lessons on A/B Testing with peers in the Product management community.
- Conference talk / workshop 5: shared lessons on SQL with peers in the Product management community.
- Conference talk / workshop 6: shared lessons on Amplitude with peers in the Product management community.
- Conference talk / workshop 7: shared lessons on Jira with peers in the Product management community.
- Conference talk / workshop 8: shared lessons on OKRs with peers in the Product management community.

References

Available on request.